

Meet our speakers:

Susanne Börjesson is an experienced Operating Room Nurse who graduated as General Nurse from the College of Health Science, Department of Nursing, Örebro 1994.

In 1997 she received the University Diploma in operating room nursing from Gothenburg University, Institute of Health and Care Sciences, Department of Nursing.

She has an extensive experience from orthopedics, gynecology, urology, general surgery and ENT surgery from different hospitals in western Sweden and the UK, where she worked in Cambridge at Addenbrook's University Hospital in 1993 and at the Greenwich District Hospital London in 1998.

The past few years, she has worked as a Surgical Coordinator at the ENT Department at Sahlgrenska University Hospital, Gothenburg.

She is currently employed at the Department of Biomedicine, University of Gothenburg, as a course organiser at the Surgical Anatomy Training Centre (KAT).